Privacy Policy

Cumberland Country Golf Club Limited (the Club) is subject to the provisions of the Privacy Act 1988. The personal information provided by you on this application form and the attached documents will be used to process your membership application. Failure to provide all of the requested information may result in your application being rejected. You have a right to access and correct any of the personal information that the Club holds about you.

The Club does not usually disclose your personal information to any other organisation or person unless there is a legal requirement to do so. The Club may disclose some personal information about you to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure. An example of a third party who may have access to your personal information is the company that prints the annual golf fixture book.

Your personal information may be used by the Club for marketing purposes to improve our services and to provide you with the latest information about those services and any new related services and promotions.

Notwithstanding anything else in this statement, you may, at any time, advise us that you do not wish to receive any direct marketing communication. You may do this by phoning or visiting our office. The opt out request will apply to all direct marketing material normally sent to you, except the Club's Newsletters that will contain prescribed notices of meetings and other notices of changes that are required by law or the Club's Constitution.

A copy of the Club's full Privacy policy is available on request from the Club's office.

I acknowledge having read and understood the above policy concerning collection and retention of personal information about me.

☐ Yes, I would like a copy of the Club's Annual Report posted to me each year.
